Information about Online Tracking

Some browsers incorporate a Do Not Track feature that signals to websites you visit that you do not want to have your online activity tracked. Tracking is not the same as using or collecting information in connection with a single website. For these purposes tracking refers to collecting personally identifiable information from consumers who use or visit a website or online service as they move across different websites over time.

How browsers communicate the Do Not Track signal is not yet uniform. As a result, this site is not yet set up to interpret or respond to Do Not Track signals communicated by your browser. Even so, as described more fully throughout this Online Privacy Statement, we limit our use and collection of your personal information.

For a description of Do Not Track protocols for browsers and mobile devices, or simply to learn more about the choices available to you, you can visit the All About Do Not Track website: <http://allaboutdnt.com>

Employees and Third Parties.

Our policies limit access to personal user information that is collected from this website to our employees and agents and the employees and/or agents of our affiliates and business partners who need the information to fulfill their business responsibilities. Payway may disclose personal information collected online to our affiliates and to vendors who assist us with the website. In some cases, this may involve third parties collecting information about your online activities over time and across different sites as well as require your information to be sent to other countries with data protection standards that differ from those of your home country. By supplying your information on this web site, you consent to your information being transferred across international borders to Payway and its affiliates, vendors, or agents. Vendors and other outside contractors we engage are subject to our contractual requirements for safeguarding personal information.

Employees and others with duties related to this website must adhere to this Online Privacy Statement. Our employees receive annual training about the privacy policies and procedures of Payway and its affiliates and subsidiaries.
